

Duties and Responsibilities of the Promotion and Missionary Education (PME) Director

Connectional PME Director

The Connectional PME Director in cooperation with the committee, distributes missionary literature and pageants, promotes mission studies; plans mission institutes; and selects audio-visual materials to aid in the interpretation of the work. The Committee consists of Episcopal District PME Directors.

Episcopal District PME Director

The Episcopal District PME Director, in cooperation with the committee, presents and carries out the Connectional Program and the Home and International Mission Study programs; selects instructional and audio-visual materials to aid in interpreting mission education, and coordinates and disseminates mission education literature to the Conferences of the Episcopal District. The Committee consists of Conference Branch PME Directors.

Conference Branch PME Director

The Conference Branch PME Director in cooperation with the committee coordinates the purchase of mission education literature for the Conference; disseminates mission education literature, pageants, etc., for the Conference plans and presents annual mission education institutes, and selects audio-visual materials to aid in interpreting mission education. The Committee consists of Area and Local PME Directors.

Area PME Director

The Area PME Director serves as a liaison between the Conference Branch and the local society and assists the Conference Branch PME Director as needed.

Local PME Director

The Local PME Director presents and carries out the Connectional Program as designed by the Connection and directed by the Conference Branch